The Examiner made claim language suggestions to fellow participants, such as adding the recitation "fully" for sections f and e of claims that read on a single polynucleotide sequence. Participants also discussed the pending double patenting rejection, as well as 112, 1st written description rejection of claim 10. Participants pointed out page 11, lines 4-7 and page 21, lines 7-25 as support for claim 10. The Examiner noted to fellow participants that she would review those passages of the specification and reconsider all pending issues upon receipt of after-final response..
